Priority 1—Nuisance Motorbikes

The riders of an extremely noisy motorbike and a small off-road bike on Marigold Crescent, Shepshed have been issued a warning letter jointly from Police and housing.

Priority 2—Retail Crime, store thefts

There has been a decrease in theft from stores on the beat with many of the usual suspects serving prison sentences. Another Shepshed resident in October was charged with theft stores and awaiting a court date.

Priority 3—Road Safety

Speed checks have been conducted on Kenilworth Road, Loughborough which is a 30mph limit. Within a 20 minute period 30 vehicles were checked with 5 drivers given warning letters who were doing speeds between 34mph and 38mph. One female runner was doing 7mph :)
