GATHERING

All gather in silence. The presiding minister reads one or more of the following sentences: -

God is our refuge and strength;
A very present help in trouble.

Psalm 46.1

I lift up my eyes to the hills –
From whence will my help come?
My help comes from the Lord,
Who made heaven and earth

Psalm 121.1-2

This I call to mind,
and therefore, I have hope:
the steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning

Lamentations 3.21-23

Those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength they shall mount up with wings like eagles they shall run and not be weary they shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 40.31

What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Micah 6.8

The presiding minister continues:

We meet in the presence of God to remember those who gave their lives in all Wars or who suffered because of injuries of body, soul and mind. We stand here in Thanksgiving for every sacrifice made, so that we might have the peace in which we now live and prosper.

We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace.

Chaplain says:

We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror. We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

REMEMBERING

Let us commemorate and commend to the loving mercy of our Heavenly Father, the Shepherd of Souls, the Giver of Life Everlasting, those who have died in the service of our country and its cause.

Bugle sound: The Last Post (Standards dip)

THE EXHORTATION

The officiating clergy or a senior member of the Legion shall recite:

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning
We will remember them.

Response: We will remember them.

THE SILENCE

Buglers sound: Reveille (Standards return to the Carry)

A lone piper plays The Lament

THE PLACING OF THE WREATHS

DEDICATION

When you go home, tell them of us and say, for your tomorrow, we gave our today.

The following prayer is said:

Ever-living God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence; may the same peace calm our fears. Bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The following hymn, expresses hope in God and trust for the future.

- 1 God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home.

- 2 Beneath the shadow of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone,
and our defence is sure.

- 3 Before the hills in order stood or earth received her frame,
from everlasting thou art God,
to endless years the same.

- 4 A thousand ages in thy sight
are like an evening gone;
short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

- 5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
bears all our years away;
thy fly forgotten, as a dream
dies at the opening day.

LISTENING FOR THE WORD OF GOD

Chaplain says:

Hear these words from the New Testament.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.

I do not give to you as the world gives.

Do not let your heart be troubled,

And do not let them be afraid.

John 14.27

The wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, with no trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

James 3:17-18

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness's sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Matthew 5: 1-12

PRAYING TOGETHER

Prayer is led by the presiding minister:

Let us pray for all who suffer as a result of conflict, and ask that God may give us peace: for the Service men and women who have died in the violence of war, each one remembered by and known to God;

May God give peace.

Response: God give peace

For those who love them in death as in life, offering the distress of our grief and the sadness of our loss;

May God give peace.

Response: God give peace

For all members of the armed forces who are in danger this day, remembering family, friends and all who pray for their safe return;

May God give peace.

Response: God give peace

For civilian women, children and men whose lives are disfigured by war or terror, calling to mind in penitence the anger and hatreds of humanity;

May God give peace.

Response: God give peace

For peace-makers and peace-keepers, who seek to keep this world secure and free;

May God give peace.

Response: God give peace

For all who bear the burden and privilege of leadership, political, military and religious; asking for gifts of wisdom and resolve in the search for reconciliation and peace.

May God give peace.

Response: God give peace

O God of truth and justice, we hold before you those whose memory we cherish, and those whose names we will never know. Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world, and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm. As we honour the past, may we put our faith in your future; for you are the source of life and hope, now and forever.

Amen.

All join together in the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done on earth
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom, the power,
And the glory
For ever and ever.
Amen.

Hymn

- 1 The day Thou gavest, Lord is ended
The darkness falls at Thy behest;
To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

- 2 We thank Thee that Thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light
Through all the world her watch is keeping
And rest not now by day or night.

- 3 As o'er each continent and island
 The dawn leads on another day
 The voice of prayer is never silent,
 Nor dies the strain of praise away.
- 4 The sun, that bids us rest, is waking
 Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
 And hour by hour fresh lips are making
 Thy wondrous doings heard in high.
- 5 So be it, Lord: Thy throne shall never,
 Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
 Thy kingdom stands and grows for ever,
 Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway.

Act of commitment:

Let us commit ourselves to responsible living and faithful service

Will you strive for all that makes for peace?

Response: We will.

Will you seek to heal the wounds of war?

Response: We will.

Will you work for a just future for all humanity?

Response: We will.

Merciful God, we offer to you the fears in us that have not yet been cast out by love;

May we accept the hope you have placed in the hearts of all people and live lives of justice, courage and mercy; through Jesus Christ our risen Redeemer.

The National Anthem

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King.
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious
Long to reign over us;
God save the King.

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign;
May he defend our laws,
and ever give us cause
to sing with heart and voice
God save our King.

The blessing:

God grant to the living – grace, to the departed – rest, to the Church, the King, the Commonwealth and all people – unity and concord, and to us and all God’s servants – life everlasting, and the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with you all and remain with you always.

Amen.
